CompTIA Welcomes Marathon Deployment to Membership Roll

Marathon Deployment joins leading information technology industry association

Marathon Deployment, Tyngsboro, Massachusetts – CompTIA, the leading non-profit trade association for the global information technology (IT) industry, today welcomed Marathon Deployment to its roster of 2,000-plus leading technology companies.

“Companies such as Marathon Deployment form the backbone of the U.S. information technology industry, which employs some five million people in technical and non-technical roles and contributes more than $900 billion annually to the nation’s economy,” said Todd Thibodeaux, president and chief executive officer, CompTIA. “We’re extremely pleased to welcome Marathon Deployment to the roster of CompTIA members. Their expertise and insights will help us craft programs and strategies that will help IT companies and our industry to grow.” “

“Clients rely on us for certified and experienced IT Professionals for their deployment needs and CompTIA is the leading trade association for the IT Industry. We are proud to be a new member and look forward to the industry events, best practices, and thought leadership.” said Colleen Howley, director, Marathon Deployment.”
